

We invite you to join us as we celebrate our Third Year Anniversary of awarding wound care scholarships to wound care professionals all over the United States and surrounding countries! Celebrate with us by donating at www.iawcsf.org!

Meet just a few of our scholarship recipients below:

Stephanie Culp
Warrensburg, MO

Lakisha Cundiff
Canton, OH

Ana D'Esquivan
Mission, TX

Elizabeth Johnson
Duluth, MN

Kristen Giera
Hartford, WI

Testimonial: "I am writing to express my heartfelt gratitude for the generous scholarship I received for my wound care certification. Your support not only aids in my professional development but also serves as a testament to your commitment to fostering education and growth within the wound care profession. I am grateful to be associated as a recipient of the IAWCSF as your mission aligns with my personal and professional values to empower individuals through education."

Kristen Giera, Hartford, WI

Dr. Sangeetha Kalabhairav
Karnataka, India

Aye Khaing
Livermore, CA

Shelby Morris
Leonardtwn, MD

Oludayo Ojelade
Joillet, IL

Jeffryl Pena
Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Zachary Rovang
Broken Arrow, OK

*Our passion is wound care, and our purpose is to reduce the escalating costs and prevent the loss of limbs and lives worldwide. Achieving this goal relies on the support of generous benefactors like you. Your financial commitment would significantly impact clinicians and their patients, providing them with resources they might not otherwise have access to. Please make a difference today and make your check payable to: The International Alliance of Wound Care Scholarship Foundation
Mailing address: 614 Rudgate Lane
Kokomo, IN 46901*